Law E-books in a Nutshell

onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk
Did you know that the Online Library databases contain a growing collection of law e-books?

This nutshell guide provides an overview of the law eBooks available from the Online Library databases and freely available online.

Dawsons E-Book Collection

Access the Dawsons E-book Collection with your student portal username and password. Dawsons contains an extensive collection of e-Books. To find out which eBooks are available you can search Summon, the A-Z Journals List, or the Dawsons e-books database directly.

You can read online or download the e-books in Dawsons that the Online Library has a purchased. To view the subscribed eBooks in the collection select the eBook Catalogue link at the top of the home page.

Find out more about Dawsons on our E-books page.

Westlaw

Access Westlaw e-books by selecting the Books tab from the menu at the top of the homepage.

Westlaw e-books are mainly practitioner texts and include:

- Arbitration World 2018: Karyl Nairn; Patrick Heneghan
- Archbold Criminal Pleading Evidence & Practice 2019 ed.
- Arnould's Law of Marine Insurance 19th ed. Gilman; Merkin
- Bullen & Leake & Jacob's Precedents of Pleadings 18th ed.
- Copinger and Skone James on Copyright 17th ed.
- Current Sentencing Practice
- European Lawyer
- Kerly's Law of Trade Marks and Trade Names 16th ed.
- MacGillivray on Insurance Law 14th ed.
- Palmer's Company Law
• Renton and Brown Criminal Procedure 6th ed.
• Renton and Brown Criminal Procedure Legislation
• Terrell on the Law of Patents 18th ed.
• Totty, Moss & Segal: Insolvency
• The White Book 2019
• Woodfall: Landlord and Tenant

Did you Know....... Westlaw’s Index to Legal Terms includes access to:
• Jowitt’s Dictionary of English Law.
• Stroud’s Judicial Dictionary of Words and Phrases.
• Osborn’s Concise Law Dictionary.

LexisLibrary
You can login from the LexisLibrary database page. Access e-books by searching the Find a source search box in the Find a Title section on the homepage, or select the Sources tab at the top to the page. The Commentary database also provides access to e-books.

Alternatively access the selection of LexisLibrary e-books listed below directly, by selecting the title links and choosing Academic Sign-In. Then log in with your student portal password by following the instructions in the LexisLibrary login guide.
A Selection of the commentary available in LexisLibrary:

- Anthony and Berryman's Magistrates' Court Guide 2018 - Practical and easy to use, it is the single most important guide to all the activities of the magistrates' court, containing straightforward and concise coverage of new case law.
- Bennion on Statutory Interpretation - the leading work on the interpretation of legislation.
- Blackstone's Criminal Practice 2018 – a single point of reference on criminal law and procedure covering all areas of criminal law. Includes the full updated text of the Criminal Procedure rules and the Sentencing Guidelines.
- Halsbury's Laws of England – a legal encyclopedia that provides the only comprehensive narrative statement of the law of England and Wales.
- Stone's Justices' Manual 2018 - provides the most reliable and current coverage of the legislative changes affecting magistrates' courts.
- Words & Phrases Legally Defined - an anthology of selected judicial and statutory definitions gathered under relevant subject headings.

HeinOnline

HeinOnline's homepage lists databases which contain e-books. For example, Legal Classics includes more than 10,000 works from some of the greatest legal minds in history including Joseph Story, Jeremy Bentham, William Blackstone, William Holdsworth, Henry Maine, Federick William Maitland, Frederick Pollock, Benjamin E. Cardozo, and many more!

Cambridge Core

You can access Cambridge Core with your student portal password.

The law e-books available are:

- Spencer, D. and M. Brogan Mediation law and practice. (Cambridge: Cambridge University Press, 2006)
Kluwer Arbitration

To access Kluwer Arbitration, please complete the Kluwer request form and the Online Library will give you a password.

Kluwer Arbitration e-books are available from the Books tab on the home page. Some of the e-books available are:

- Concise International Arbitration, Mistelis (ed) (2015) - a succinct, accessible and authoritative commentary.
- Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration (2015) - Reviews the legal context within which international commercial arbitration operates.
- International Arbitration: Law and Practice, Born (2015) – provides a comprehensive coverage of the basic principles and legal doctrines, and the practice, of international arbitration.
- ICCA Congress Series - reports and commentary presented at International Council for Commercial Arbitration congresses and conferences.

Freely Available E-books

Google Books: Full text access to out of print books and full text extracts of a wide range of in print books. On Google Books you will often find limited preview versions of electronic law textbooks. Limited preview versions exclude pages due to copyright law.

Project Gutenberg: The Internet's oldest producer of free electronic books.

Publications Office of the EU: EU Law publications.

Contact us

If you need any help with e-books, please contact the Online Library Enquiry Service by:

- Email: onlinelibrary@london.ac.uk
- Ask a Librarian Live Chat
- Web form
- Telephone: +44 (0)20 7862 8478 between 9.00 and 17.00 London time, Monday to Friday.