Did you know that the Online Library databases contain a growing collection of law e-books?

This nutshell guide provides an overview of the Online Library databases which contain law eBooks and those freely available online.

Dawsons eBook collection:

Access Dawsons e-book collection with your student portal username and password.

Dawsons contains an extensive collection of e-Books. To find out which eBooks are available you can search Summon, the A-Z Journals List, or the Dawsons eBooks database directly.

You can read online or download the e-books in Dawsons that the Online Library has a purchased.

Find out more about Dawsons eBooks at: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/e-books

Westlaw: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/databases/westlaw

Access:

Access Westlaw eBooks by selecting the Viewing drop down at the top left corner of the home page, then select Books.

Westlaw eBooks are mainly practitioner texts and include:

- Arbitration World 2018: Karyl Nairn; Patrick Heneghan
- Arnould's Law of Marine Insurance 19th ed. Gilman; Merkin
- Bullen & Leake & Jacob’s Precedents of Pleadings 18th ed.
- Conflict of Laws and International Finance 2nd ed. Wood
- Copinger and Skone James on Copyright 17th ed.
- Current Sentencing Practice
- Kerly's Law of Trade Marks and Trade Names 16th ed.
- MacGillivray on Insurance Law 14th ed.
- Palmer's Company Law
- Renton and Brown Criminal Procedure 6th ed.
- Renton and Brown Criminal Procedure Legislation
- Regulation of International Finance 2nd ed.
- Terrell on the Law of Patents 18th ed.
- Totty, Moss & Segal: Insolvency

Did you know……. Westlaw’s Index to Legal Terms includes access to:

- Jowitt’s Dictionary of English Law.
- Stroud’s Judicial Dictionary of Words and Phrases.
- Osborn’s Concise Law Dictionary.
LexisLibrary: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/databases/lexislibrary

Access eBooks by searching the Find a source search box in the Find a Title section on the homepage, or select the Sources tab at the top right of the home page. The Commentary database also provides access to eBooks.

Alternatively access the selection of LexisLibrary eBooks listed below directly, by selecting the title links and choosing Academic Sign-In. Then log in with your student portal password by following the instructions in the log in guide: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/support/login-guides/lexislibrary

A Selection of the commentary available in LexisLibrary:

- Anthony and Berryman's Magistrates' Court Guide 2019 - Practical and easy to use, it is the single most important guide to all the activities of the magistrates' court, containing straightforward and concise coverage of new case law.

- Bennion on Statutory Interpretation - the leading work on the interpretation of legislation.

- Blackstone's Criminal Practice 2019 – a single point of reference on criminal law and procedure covering all areas of criminal law. Includes the full updated text of the Criminal Procedure rules and the Sentencing Guidelines.

- Stone's Justices' Manual 2019 - provides the most reliable and current coverage of the legislative changes affecting magistrates' courts.

- Words & Phrases Legally Defined - an anthology of selected judicial and statutory definitions gathered under relevant subject headings.

HeinOnline: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/databases/heinonline

Access, the HeinOnline databases which contain e-books from list on the homepage, such as:

Legal Classics Includes more than 10,000 works from some of the greatest legal minds in history including Joseph Story, Jeremy Bentham, William Blackstone, William Holdsworth, Henry Maine, Federick William Maitland, Frederick Pollock, Benjamin E. Cardozo, and many more!

Cambridge Core: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/databases/cambridge-core
Access Cambridge Core with a student portal password.

The law eBooks available are:

Kluwer Arbitration: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/resources/databases/kluwerarbitration

To Access Kluwer Arbitration contact the Online Library for a Kluwer Arbitration password at: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/about/contact-us?type=kluwer

Kluwer Arbitration e-books are available from the Books tab on the home page.

A selection of the eBooks available include:

Redfern and Hunter on International Arbitration (2015) - Reviews the legal context within which international commercial arbitration operates.

International Arbitration: Law and Practice, Born (2015) – provides a comprehensive coverage of the basic principles and legal doctrines, and the practice, of international arbitration.

ICCA Congress Series - reports and commentary presented at International Council for Commercial Arbitration congresses and conferences.

Freely Available Online eBooks

Google Books: http://books.google.co.uk

Full text access to out of print books and full text extracts of a wide range of in print books. On Google Books you will often find limited preview versions of electronic law textbooks. Limited preview versions exclude pages due to copyright law.

Project Gutenberg: http://gutenberg.org/wiki/Main_Page

The Internet's oldest producer of free electronic books.

EU Law publications.

Contact Us
For assistance contact the Online Library Enquiry Service:
http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/support/help/online-library-enquiry-service

Contact us by:

Email: onlinelibrary@london.ac.uk.

Ask a Librarian Live Chat: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/support/help/online-library-enquiry-service/ask-librarian-live-chat

Web form: http://onlinelibrary.london.ac.uk/about/contact-us?type=library_enquiry

Telephone: +44 (0)20 7862 8478 between 9.00am and 17.00 GMT, Monday to Friday.